

2018 Spring Assessment Conference:

BAMP/MDTP ASSESSMENT CONFERENCE FOR MATHEMATICS TEACHERS

Limited Space. Register Today at: <http://bit.ly/2zRqJ9yAssessment2018>

For questions about the program please call Emiliano Gomez at 510-642-0752.

For questions about logistics please call Vanessa Castañeda at 510-642-7154.

What can teachers learn from each other, and how?

We will discuss how we can use assessment data from our students to learn from each other's successful practices and teaching strategies. We will also make a case for lesson study and its powerful impact on professional growth.

Other topics will include...

- We will describe MDTP's new and completely free online testing and reporting platform, the current state of development of its CCSS-aligned diagnostic tests, and its new placement tests designed to help schools comply with SB 359.
- There will be discussion of important equity and pedagogy issues like access, engagement, language development, and effective teaching practices.

When: Saturday, March 3, 2018 •
8:45am-2:15pm

Where: Lawrence Hall of Science • Room 150

Registration open until: February 26, 2018.

Parking and lunch are included in your $25 registration.

Co-sponsored by:

What you get:

- Strategies for diagnostic and formative assessments
- Connections between assessment and student agency and identity
- Networking opportunities
- Discussions about current issues

THE LAWRENCE
HALL OF SCIENCE
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

The California State University/University of California
Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Project

